Tennis Court Rules

Who may Use the Courts

Chantilly Highland Residents in good standing and their guests.

- * Guests must be accompanied by a resident.
- * Guests may include a paid tennis coach/trainer, and the resident must be present at alltimes.
 - *Trainers may not attempt to hold court access until the resident arrives.
 - *If a trainer is not with a student, and waiting for another student, then the trainer must exit the court. How Do Residents Gain Access

- * There is a combination lock on the door leading to the tennis courts. The code for the lock can be obtained from the Newsletters and Owner Info Menu on the chha.org site.(Login Required)
- * Access codes may not be shared with anyone not currently residing at the requesting lot. This includes any hired tennis coach or instructor. If a non-resident instructor is hired, the resident is responsible for unlocking and locking the courts. Priority of Play
- * Courts are available on a first come first serve basis. Courts may not be reserved without the express written approval of the CHHA Board of Directors.
- * The CHHA Board of Directors may reserve courts for tournaments, league play, or special events.
- * Play is limited to one hour for singles and two hours for doubles when other players are waiting.

Rules of the Courts

- * Courts are to be used for Tennis Only.
- * Players are requested to observe tennis court courtesies as well as rules of good conduct on and around tennis courts.
- * Players will lock the court gate when exiting if no other players are present on the courts and no other players are directly entering the courts.
- * Players are required to wear tennis shoes when using the courts.
- * Bicycles, skates, skateboards, baby carriages, playpens, strollers, balls other than tennis balls, radios and pets are not allowed on the courts.
- * Improper use of the tennis courts and/or any violation of these rules will result in the suspension or revocation of the right-to-use the tennis courts by the CHHA Board of Directors. Anyone vandalizing any CHHA property will be subject to arrest.
