

RAMADAN

Iftar

Thank you Volunteers and Participants!

March 7th, 2025

EID MUBARAK

Did You Know? The word Mubarak means "blessed" and is the proper term to use when greeting others on the holiday. So, if you'd like to share well wishes with your Muslim neighbors, you can say "Have a blessed Eid Al-Fitr" or simply "Eid Mubarak!" A small gesture like this can go a long way in fostering connection and community!